1. Introduction - Governance Framework

These processes have been developed by the Queensland Catholic Education Commission (QCEC), in consultation with Catholic School Authorities (CSAs), to assist CSAs to meet legislative and procedural processes for responding to, and reporting, abuse and harm towards students, including inappropriate behaviour of a staff member and the process for a student to report conduct of a staff member that the student considers is inappropriate.

Nothing that is written in these processes prevents a staff member or any other person from taking immediate action to notify the Queensland Police Service and/or the Department responsible for Child Safety, particularly if they believe that it is essential to act to ensure a student's safety.

Version control and history

Effective date

9 June 2025

Review date

These processes shall be reviewed every 12 months, or when necessary, as required by changes to legislation, policy, or procedure.

The Governing Body

The Governing Body is The Corporation of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Toowoomba.
The Director of the Governing Body is the Most Reverend Ken Howell, Bishop of Toowoomba.

School Student Protection Contacts

Under the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Section 16(3)), all Toowoomba Catholic Schools administered by The Corporation of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Toowoomba have at least two nominated staff members to whom a student can report behaviour of another staff member that the student considers inappropriate. The names of the School Student Protection Contacts are made known to staff, students and parents/carers, and are published on the school's website, displayed via posters throughout the school and maintained on a central register.

When a School Student Protection Contact receives concerns relating to harm to a student or risk of harm to a student, they must inform the principal (or if the principal is involved in the allegations, the Director of the Governing Body).

Complaints procedure

Under the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017 (Section 16(5)), Toowoomba Catholic Schools, administered by The Corporation of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Toowoomba, must have a written complaints procedure to address allegations of non-compliance with student protection processes. Information about the complaints procedure is available from the Toowoomba Catholic Schools website.

Awareness and implementation

If staff members, volunteers, parents/carers, or students require further information in relation to any of the processes described in this document, and/or other student protection compliance requirements, advice should be obtained from the principal, the School Student Protection Contacts, or the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Office.

The Director of the Governing Body is responsible for ensuring the implementation and dissemination of the Student Protection Processes and Guidelines in line with Section 16(4) Education \(Accreditation of Non-State Schools\) Regulation 2017. All staff, students, parents/carers, volunteers and contractors are made aware of and have access to the Student Protection Processes and Guidelines.

This is achieved by

- the Student Protection Processes and Guidelines being published on the Toowoomba Catholic Schools website, and being available in hardcopy at each school
- all school staff members being required to complete student protection training on commencement of employment, then on an annual basis
- all volunteers and visiting service providers receiving information regarding student protection processes as part of their induction
- students being made aware of the School Student Protection Contacts through posters displayed throughout the school, and receiving protective behaviours education through the school curriculum
- parents/carers being provided with student protection information on enrolment, via the school and TCS websites, and through updates via newsletter and other school publications
- the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Office employing a Student Protection Officer and a part-time Student Protection Advisor to provide support and advice to schools regarding the implementation of the Student Protection Processes and Guidelines.

This document should be read in conjunction with the Student Protection Guidelines for Toowoomba Catholic Schools.

2. Our responsibilities

Toowoomba Catholic Schools is committed to creating and maintaining safe environments for students. This document sets out the responsibilities and processes for all staff members and the process for a student reporting inappropriate conduct of a staff member. The document also provides guidance and information for volunteers, other personnel, and parents/carers where they have a concern for the protection of a student. This document specifies

- processes for reporting sexual abuse or suspected sexual abuse of students in accordance with the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006
- processes for reporting and responding to harm or risk of harm to students, including physical, psychological, emotional or sexual abuse and neglect in accordance with the Child Protection Act 1999
- processes for reporting a child sexual offence in accordance with the Criminal Code Act 1999
- processes for responding to allegations of harm to students caused by students themselves or others in accordance with Section 16 (1) of the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools Regulation 2017)
- processes for a student to report inappropriate conduct of a staff member in accordance with Section 16 (2) of the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools Regulation 2017)
- processes for responding to alleged staff inappropriate behaviours towards a student in accordance with Section 16 (2) of the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools Regulation 2017).

All Catholic schools are bound by a range of legislation that sets out our responsibilities for the safety and wellbeing of children and young people. Appendix 2 provides more detailed information about the relevant legislation.

Fundamentally, it is the responsibility of each member of staff and other personnel, to prioritise the safety and wellbeing of every student. This includes responding to any reasonable suspicion that a child has suffered, is suffering or is at unacceptable risk of suffering harm caused by abuse and/or neglect including sexual abuse, sexual offences and alleged inappropriate behaviour by a staff member towards a student. The following definitions are used to cover the breadth of harm that is captured in the different legislation as per Appendix 2.

As per the Child Protection Act 1999 s.9 harm is defined as

- (1) harm to a child is any detrimental effect of a significant nature on the child's physical, psychological, or emotional wellbeing
- (2) it is immaterial how the harm is caused
- (3) harm can be caused by –
  - a) physical, psychological, or emotional abuse or neglect; or
  - b) sexual abuse or exploitation.
- (4) harm can be caused by—
  - a) a single act, omission or circumstance; or
  - b) a series or combination of acts, omissions or circumstances.

The Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 s364 defines sexual abuse as

sexual abuse, in relation to a relevant person, includes sexual behaviour involving the relevant person and another person in the following circumstances—

- (a) the other person bribes, coerces, exploits, threatens or is violent toward the relevant person;
- (b) the relevant person has less power than the other person;
- (c) there is a significant disparity between the relevant person and the other person in intellectual capacity or maturity.

For further information see Section 4 of the Student Protection Guidelines.

All schools should develop processes and systems to support staff and other personnel to ensure all reports are actioned in a timely manner. These processes need to be clearly communicated to all staff.

Failure to report and respond can be both an offence under the relevant legislation and may constitute a breach of the Code of Conduct of Toowoomba Catholic Schools. Failure to report and act is not acceptable, it is everyone's responsibility to prioritise the safety and wellbeing of children and young people.

The reporting processes for any allegations of abuse, harm or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student are set out in this document.

The regulatory framework includes the relevant legislation, the National Catholic Safeguarding Standards which have been developed and adopted by the Catholic Church in Australia to support the creation of a child safe environment, and the associated duty of care of staff. This is visualised below.

3. Reporting framework

This section summarises the actions required if any person who is part of the school community either in a paid or voluntary capacity has concerns or suspicions of

- a. abuse and harm to a student and/or
- b. alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student.

School staff have specific mandatory reporting obligations pursuant to different pieces of legislation. The different legislative mandatory reporting obligations and processes are detailed at Section 4 of this document.

3.1 Who is responsible for identifying and responding to allegations of abuse, harm, or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student?

The Student Protection Processes are relevant to any person who is part of the school community either in a paid or voluntary capacity. This includes but is not limited to the following personnel.

- teachers
- principals
- all staff, which includes all other personnel employed by Toowoomba Catholic Schools
- contractors who provide services on Toowoomba Catholic Schools' sites
- volunteers
- students on practicums
- visitors to the school community

Staff members have a mandatory responsibility for reporting.

Other stakeholders, that is, volunteers, other personnel and parents/carers who identify concerns or suspicions of abuse, harm and/or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student, are responsible for conferring with the appropriate personnel, as outlined in this document.

Definitions of terminology

Toowoomba Catholic Schools uses the following descriptors as specified in the relevant legislation.

First Person

This document uses the term First Person to refer to the staff member who first becomes aware of or reasonably suspects alleged abuse, harm, or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student, this includes seeing and/or hearing about alleged abuse, harm or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student.

3.2 Framework for responding

The framework for responding to and reporting student protection concerns involves four steps: Identify, Confer, Report, Support (ICRS). This framework is explained below and is referred to throughout this document.

Flowchart 1: Framework for responding to student protection concerns

3.3 Identify

Any person who is part of the school community either in a paid or voluntary capacity is responsible for identifying student protection concerns.

Identifying concerns includes becoming aware of, recognising, seeing, or receiving information. This includes

- recognising the signs of abuse, harm, neglect, or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student
- seeing or hearing something concerning
- receiving information from students, staff, parents/carers, or other community members about allegations of abuse, harm, or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student.

When in doubt, always confer with the principal and/or School Student Protection Contacts.

3.4 Confer

3.4.1 What is conferring?

- Conferring means formally consulting with appropriate colleagues, for example, the principal, School Student Protection Contacts, or the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Office Student Protection Officer or Advisor, to discuss and establish whether the information received may constitute a 'reasonable suspicion' of abuse, harm or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student.
- Conferral is an opportunity to discuss and seek guidance about the concerns and agree on actions.
- Agreed actions and decisions must always be documented. This includes
  - whether a 'reasonable suspicion' is identified resulting in the need to report or
  - where the information does not constitute a 'reasonable suspicion,' what, if any follow up support is required.

3.4.2 Why confer?

- Engaging in appropriate consultation to seek more information or guidance can
  - inform responses and assist with the rigour of the decision making
  - identify contextual factors/information that may not otherwise be known, for example, the principal may have relevant information about a family
  - aid in deciding whether a 'reasonable suspicion' of harm has occurred to support the decision to report
  - assist in identifying if there is a parent who may be 'willing and able' to protect the student in the case of harm
  - support staff in making a decision and help minimise psychosocial risks to staff and
  - facilitate the best possible safety and support response for a student.
- Conferral is not reporting, nor is it investigating. It is a support to aid in deciding whether a 'reasonable suspicion' of harm has occurred under legislative requirements.

3.4.3 Who do I confer with?

- Conferral with the principal is always recommended. Conferral with the School Student Protection Contacts is also always recommended. The exception is if the principal or School Student Protection Contact is identified as the alleged person responsible for the harm or abuse or if they are involved in the allegations. Conferral can also include conferral with the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Office Student Protection Officer or Advisor, the Department responsible for Child Safety, Queensland Police Service or Family and Child Connect.
- Conferral may happen immediately upon becoming aware of, or reasonably suspecting, harm to a student so that reporting is not delayed and there can be an appropriate response to the concerns.

- Conferral must not occur with anyone allegedly involved in the concerns to maintain safety of the student and avoid conflicts of interest and bias.
- The First Persons/reporters must never notify the person alleged to have caused the abuse or harm.
- Conferral does not replace the First Person's responsibility to report and respond to the harm.

3.4.4 How do I maintain confidentiality?

- Confidentiality is a crucial element of conferral processes. Information sharing should consider the following.
  - The appropriateness of the person you wish to confer with and their role ie Student Protection Contact and/or principal. This person must not be involved as a subject of concern.
  - Limiting what information is shared to the extent necessary. Consider what information will help respond to the immediate safety and wellbeing of a student without having to disclose too much personal information.
  - Focusing on the purpose of the conferral ie to support decision making about whether there is a reasonable suspicion of abuse, harm or alleged inappropriate staff behaviour that should be reported.

3.4.5 If I confer do I still need to report?

Yes. Conferring does not replace the legal obligations to report. Conferring is a process to support and assist in making a decision if there is a reasonable suspicion of harm or risk of harm or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour. If the answer is yes, you must follow the processes as detailed in these Student Protection Processes.

Maintaining the safety of the student is the primary concern.

3.5 Report

All school staff have specific mandatory reporting obligations pursuant to different pieces of legislation. The different legislative mandatory reporting obligations and processes are detailed in full at Section 4 of this document.

It is the responsibility of all staff members employed by Toowoomba Catholic Schools and all personnel on Toowoomba Catholic Schools sites as identified in this document to report concerns of harm or risk of harm or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student.

Important note

Our obligations include adherence to

- Section 13E Child Protection Act 1999
- Sections 16(1) and (2) of the Education \(Accreditation of Non-State Schools\) Regulation 2017
- Any concerns about sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse are reported to the Queensland Police Service in accordance with Sections 366 and 366A of the Education \(General Provisions\) Act 2006.
- Section 229BC of the Criminal Code Act 1899 requires that any adult report concerns about sexual offending against a child by another adult to the Queensland Police Service and take action to protect a child from a sexual offence.
- A report under the Criminal Code Act 1899 is only required if a matter has not already been reported under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (reporting sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse) or the Child Protection Act 1999 (reporting of significant harm/risk of significant harm where there may not be a parent able and willing to protect).

Flowchart 2: Reporting process for allegations of abuse, harm, or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student

3.5.1 What does report mean?

- Reporting is the act of providing a written report to an appropriate person or authority about concerns of harm to a student.
- School staff have specific mandatory reporting obligations pursuant to different pieces of legislation. The obligations differ with respect to the kind of harm the student may be at risk of or subject to. These obligations are set out at Section 4 of this document.
- An allegation of harm may result in more than one reporting obligation being triggered. Where this is the case, multiple reports may need to be made to satisfy mandatory reporting obligations.

3.5.2 Who is responsible for reporting?

- All school staff have responsibilities to report. For specific information about when a report is required and by who, refer to Section 4 of this document.
- The staff member who becomes aware of or reasonably suspects the alleged abuse, harm or inappropriate behaviour is the First Person. The First Person is responsible for immediately reporting concerns to the appropriate person or authority, as per the processes in Section 4 of this document.
- The First Person may have support in completing the written report from the principal and/or School Student Protection Contacts (if available). However, the person who has the legislative responsibility to submit the report must ensure they are personally discharging their legislative obligation by reporting.
- Reporting abuse/harm needs to be prioritised and must not be delayed. To facilitate this, schools will support reporters to ensure all reports are actioned in a timely manner which can include for example, being released from their duties.
- The principal, or the Director of the Governing Body, must confirm that written reports are being submitted as required by school staff.
- The Director of the Governing Body must confirm that written reports are being submitted as required by the principal.
- Where a school staff member is required to report to the principal or the Director of the Governing Body, the principal or the Director of the Governing Body should inform the staff member that they have reported the matter to the authorities as required.

3.6 Support

- At all times it is essential to remain focused on the support needs of the student. Key questions to ask include the following
  - Have all appropriate steps been taken to secure the student's safety and wellbeing?
  - What support does the student need?
  - Who is best situated to provide this support?

- In the first instance consult with the principal and School Student Protection Contacts to develop a plan for how to best support the student, including who has responsibility for this.
- Support options can include referral to the School Guidance Counsellor or organisations such as Kids Helpline and others, depending on the situation. This should be coordinated through the principal and School Student Protection Contacts.
- Support also includes support provided to the family/carers of the student as appropriate.
- Remember the needs of the student remain of paramount importance.

4. Reporting requirements

This section outlines the legislative reporting requirements and provides guidance on the process for reporting.

4.1 Key guiding principles

The following key principles guide the reporting process.

- The safety and wellbeing of every child and young person is the paramount concern. Every child has the right to
  - be protected from harm, abuse, neglect and inappropriate behaviour by staff or other personnel associated with the school towards a student dignity, privacy, respect, and safety.
- All members of Toowoomba Catholic Schools and other personnel
  - have a duty to care for children and young people and
  - must take necessary action to protect children and young people from harm.
- Mandatory reporting includes
  - reporting of sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse, or suspicion of sexual abuse by all school staff even if there is a parent willing and able to protect their child from harm, in line with the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 obligations – see Section 4.2 of this document
  - reporting of a reasonable suspicion that a child has suffered, is suffering or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse and the child may not have a parent able and willing to protect them from the harm, – See Section 4.3 of this document
  - reporting if adults believe on reasonable grounds, or ought to reasonably believe that a child sexual offence is being or has been committed against a child by another adult – see Section 4.5 of this document and
  - reporting all concerns about harm to a student or risk of harm to a student to the principal and/or Student Protection Contacts – see Section 4.5.1 of this document.
- All staff members employed by Toowoomba Catholic Schools are obligated to report and follow the processes set out in this document.
- Urgency in responding is key.

4.2 Requirement to report sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse to the Queensland Police Service under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006

4.2.1 What are our obligations?

- In accordance with Sections 366 and 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, if the First Person becomes aware or reasonably suspects that a student has been sexually abused or is likely to be sexually abused by another person, the First Person must immediately give a written report to the principal or Director of the Governing Body who will then report the matter to the Queensland Police Service.
- The First Person has a responsibility to safeguard the child.
- The First Person must follow the reporting requirements set out in this document. This may include conferral with the principal and or School Student Protection Contacts (only if doing so does not result in a report being delayed) and immediate completion of a report.
- Where the First Person is the principal, the principal must immediately make a written report to the Queensland Police Service and to the Director of the Governing Body.

The First Person cannot delegate or transfer the reporting requirements to another person. It is the responsibility of the First Person to make the report as per legal requirements. Remember the First Person may first confer and seek guidance from appropriate personnel, so long as doing so does not prevent a report from being made immediately as required by legislation.

In relation to awareness or reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse/reasonable suspicion of likely sexual abuse, the process for reporting is shown in the flowchart below (Flowchart 3).

Flowchart 3: Key steps for reporting awareness or reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse/reasonable suspicion of likely sexual abuse

Important note

For the purposes of Toowoomba Catholic Schools, mandatory reporting of sexual abuse and likely sexual abuse relates to all students irrespective of their age ie aged 18 and over.

It is the policy of Toowoomba Catholic Schools that all reasonable suspicion that a student has experienced sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse are reported to the Queensland Police Service in accordance with these processes. This is irrespective of the context ie during the course of the staff member's employment at the school, or in their private capacity outside the school.

4.3 Requirement to report to the Department responsible for Child Safety under the Child Protection Act 1999

4.3.1 What are our obligations?

- Section 13E (1) of the Child Protection Act 1999 identifies teachers, registered nurses, doctors and child advocates under the Public Guardian Act 2014 and early childhood education and care professionals as mandatory reporters. These staff are mandated to submit a report to the Department responsible for Child Safety when they have a reasonable suspicion that a child
  - has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse and
  - the child may not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.
- This brings with it consequences for not fulfilling these obligations. These obligations cannot be delegated or transferred to another person.
- Although the Child Protection Act 1999 only identifies certain staff as mandatory reporters, Toowoomba Catholic Schools requires all school staff (including those who are not mandatory reporters under this legislation) to report reasonable suspicions of harm or risk of harm to a student, child or young person to the principal and/or School Student Protection Contacts.
- Further, all school staff have other mandatory reporting responsibilities, as outlined in this document.
- The First Person has a responsibility to safeguard the child and must follow the reporting requirements set out in this document. This may include conferral with the principal and or School Student Protection Contacts, and completion of a report.
- It is recommended that the First Person confer with the principal and/or School Student Protection Contacts, unless the principal is involved in the allegations, to help determine if there is a reasonable suspicion that a child may not have a parent able and willing to protect them from the harm or abuse.
- It is recommended that the First Person not make a determination that the child has a parent able and willing to protect them from the harm without consulting the principal.

Remember: Reporting occurs after the process of identification and conferral.

The process for reporting is outlined in flowchart 4 below.

Flowchart 4: Reporting process to the Department responsible for Child Safety for significant harm or risk of harm

\ First Persons may be mandatory reporters under the legislation or any other school staff, as Toowoomba Catholic Schools requires all school staff to report significant harm or risk of harm. First Persons should make mandatory reports to the Department responsible for Child Safety (Child Safety) through their principal or the Director of the Governing Body (as described above).*

However, if a person is a mandatory reporter under the Child Protection Act 1999 (as outlined at 4.3.1), the legislative mandatory reporting obligation remains with them. If the First Person is unable to confirm that the principal or the Director of the Governing Body has provided their report to the Department responsible for Child Safety, the First Person must fulfil their legislative responsibilities by reporting directly to the Department responsible for Child Safety.

First Persons are encouraged to confer with the Toowoomba Catholic Schools, Student Protection Officers for support.

The First Person must never make a determination that the child has a parent able and willing to protect them from the harm without consulting the principal.

The process for submitting reports through the principal or Director of the Governing Body must at all times ensure that the integrity of the information in the report by the First Person is maintained.

- Sections 4, 5 and 6 - Student Protection Guidelines
- Child Protection Act 1999
- FAQ

4.4 Requirement to report under the Criminal Code Act 1899

- All adults in Queensland (as per s229BC of the Criminal Code Act 1899) are required to report a reasonable suspicion of a sexual offence against a child, irrespective of where this occurs. Examples can include but not limited to the following.
  - A teacher may be coaching netball for a private non-school related team and a disclosure of a sexual offence is made to them.
  - A staff member is made aware through their friendship network of a sexual offence against a child.
- It is a reasonable excuse not to report under s229BC of the Criminal Code Act 1899 if a report has already been made to Child Safety or the Queensland Police Service in accordance with the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 or the Child Protection Act 1999 as set out above.

Important note

Failure to protect a student from a child sexual offence

In addition to the requirement to report a child sexual offence, under Section 229BB of the Criminal Code Act 1899 it is a criminal offence for an Accountable Person to fail to protect a child from a child sexual offence.

A failure to protect offence will be committed if an Accountable Person

- a) knows there is a significant risk that another adult (the alleged offender) will commit a child sexual offence in relation to a child; and
- b) the alleged offender is associated with the institution (school)
- c) the child is under the care, supervision or control of an institution (the school)
- d) the child is under 16 years old or has an impairment of the mind
- e) the Accountable Person has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove the risk; and
- f) the Accountable Person wilfully or negligently fails to reduce or remove the risk.

Failing to report sexual abuse also breaches the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, and Toowoomba Catholic School's policies and processes.

4.5 Requirement to respond to all harm, abuse or allegations of harm or abuse

In accordance with legislative requirements, CSAs have a responsibility to respond to harm or allegations of harm to a student irrespective of the cause. This section outlines our responsibilities.

4.5.1 Reporting all concerns about harm or risk of harm to a student

A member of Toowoomba Catholic Schools (including all personnel) who forms a reasonable suspicion that a student has suffered or is at risk of harm (that is, sexual, physical, psychological, emotional harm or neglect), or has been subject to inappropriate behaviour, must report the matter to the principal and/or Student Protection Contacts, so appropriate action can be taken to ensure the wellbeing of the student.

4.5.2 Allegations of harm/risk of harm or inappropriate behaviour by principal, staff member or other personnel or volunteer

A member of Toowoomba Catholic Schools who forms a reasonable suspicion that a student has suffered or is at risk of suffering harm (that is, sexual, physical, psychological, emotional harm or neglect), or has been subject to inappropriate behaviour caused by the principal, staff member or other personnel (including volunteers), has the responsibility to follow the processes outlined in this document. It is the responsibility of all personnel to safeguard and protect all students.

In accordance with Section 16 (2) of the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017, a school must have a process for the reporting of staff behaviour that a student considers to be inappropriate.

Additionally, a school must have a process to respond to the reported staff member's inappropriate behaviour.

Inappropriate behaviour by a staff member or other personnel (including volunteers) may occur where there is a violation of professional boundaries. A description of professional boundaries can be found at Section 10 of the Student Protection Guidelines.

Therefore, if a staff member becomes aware of staff behaviour that a student considers to be inappropriate, the staff member must report this behaviour in accordance with the designated processes without delay.

A staff member's failure to report may constitute a breach of the Code of Conduct of Toowoomba Catholic Schools and disciplinary action may be taken against the staff member.

Dealing with inappropriate behaviour of a staff member, principal or volunteer

- Minor incidents

Minor incidents relate to allegations of minor inappropriate behaviour by a staff member, principal or volunteer. The types of allegations suited to Minor incident interventions include but are not limited to a one-off allegation of inappropriate behaviour by a staff member or volunteer where no physical injury results. The allegations may involve low level physical contact from a staff member or volunteer. The allegations must not relate to abuse or harm to a student.

The matter is a Minor incident if all of the following criteria are met.

- A complaint/allegation/report (in any form) has been received which alleges conduct or behaviour by a staff member, principal or volunteer towards a student that contravenes the Code of Conduct of Toowoomba Catholic Schools.
- If the complaint/allegation/report involves low level physical contact from a staff member, principal or volunteer, and no physical injury was sustained by the student.

- The complaint/allegation/report does not relate to sexual abuse, suspected sexual abuse, likely sexual abuse or other harm or suspected harm or risk of harm of a student by the staff member, principal or volunteer
- the conduct alleged does not warrant formal disciplinary action if proven
- the principal, or Director: PES if the allegation is about the principal, considers the matter could be dealt with effectively at the local level.

Minor incidents are dealt with in accordance with the Level 1 investigation process under the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Investigation guidelines.

- Professional misconduct

Allegations of professional misconduct are matters, which, if substantiated, would make a staff member or principal liable for disciplinary action.

Examples of incidents requiring a professional misconduct intervention include, but are not limited to

- inappropriate non-physical and/or physical contact
- exposing or subjecting the child/student to emotionally or psychologically inappropriate behaviour
- repeated instances of inappropriate behaviour.

Important note

Sexual activity between staff members and students

The involvement of any Toowoomba Catholic Schools staff member or volunteer in sexual activity with, or sexual exploitation of a student attending the school is sexual abuse. This must be immediately reported as per Section 4.1 of this document.

4.5.3 Harm or risk of harm to a student caused by self-harm

All Toowoomba Catholic Schools staff and other personnel must respond to students who deliberately cause pain or damage to their own body which can be suicidal or non-suicidal in intent. The priority is the immediate safety of the student. This includes determining if medical attention such as first aid is required and/or an immediate response from emergency services or mental health services is required.

Self-harm can take on different forms and its frequency can vary from student to student. Explanations can be found in Section 2.5 of the Student Protection Guidelines.

Self-harm is normally a sign that a student is feeling intense emotional pain and distress. Therefore, self-harming behaviour by a student must be reported immediately to the principal and/or School Student Protection Contacts at the school.

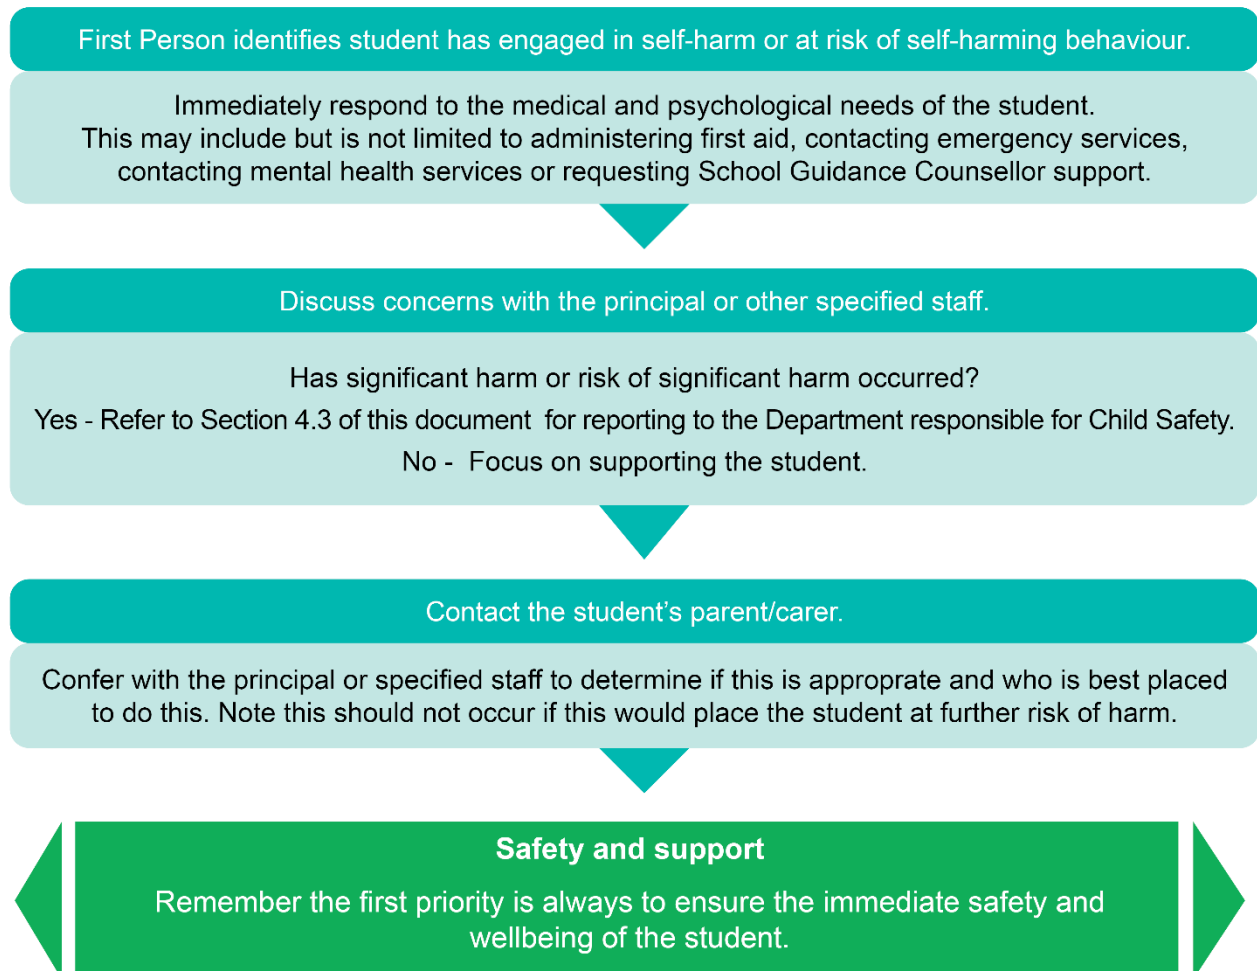

As with all situations, there is a responsibility to report the harm to the Department responsible for Child Safety as per Section 4.3 of this document if the First Person forms a reasonable suspicion that a student

- has suffered, is suffering or is at unacceptable risk of significant harm, because of their self-harming behaviour and
- may not have a parent able and willing to protect the student from harm, (for example refusing to support the student in accessing medical or psychological care or unable to take protective action). The First Person must never make a determination that the child has a parent able and willing to protect them from the harm, without consulting the principal.

4.5.4 Harm or risk of harm to a student caused by another student

Where a First Person forms a reasonable suspicion that a student has been harmed or is at risk of being harmed by another student, the process involves

- prioritising the safety of the student, this includes attention to any medical treatment
- managing the student's behaviour in accordance with the Toowoomba Catholic Schools processes for the conduct of students, or relevant behaviour support guidelines
- where criminal offences have been alleged, for example the serious assault of a student by another student over the age of 10 years, advising parents/carers of the option to pursue action through the Queensland Police Service (Toowoomba Catholic Schools will cooperate with any resulting investigation)
- managing bullying behaviour, (including online bullying) in accordance with Toowoomba Catholic Schools processes for the conduct of students, or relevant behaviour support guidelines
- making a written report to the Department responsible for Child Safety if a staff member forms a reasonable suspicion that a student has suffered, is suffering or is at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm, as a result of student to student behaviours AND may not have a parent able and willing to protect the student from harm, (for example an inability to provide supervision for the student), in accordance with Section 4.3 of this document
- making any other reports that may be required, for example a report to the Queensland Police Service under Section 4.2 of this document of a reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse.

Flowchart 6: Process for responding to harm caused by another student

4.5.4 Responding to student sexual behaviour

- Sexual behaviours of various kinds may be evident in children, particularly in the early years. Some forms of sexual behaviour may be considered developmentally appropriate for the child's age and stage of development.
- Other behaviours may indicate that the child could have been exposed to inappropriate material or experiences (for example, reports of very young children knowing about and experimenting with oral sex). Resources such as those published by the Department responsible for Child Safety can assist in identifying inappropriate sexual behaviour.
- Suspicion that a student has been sexually abused may also be formed in some circumstances where a student exhibits concerning sexual behaviour. In these circumstances, the First Person must follow the framework for responding to and reporting student protection concerns of Identify, Confer, Report, Support. This includes
  - identifying if a reasonable suspicion or significant harm has occurred and
  - reporting as per this document, which may include a report to the Queensland Police Services, and/or the Department responsible for Child Safety.

4.5.5 Harm or risk of harm to a student caused by a person not associated with the school or family

There may be some circumstances where a First Person becomes aware of or reasonably suspects a concern that a student has been harmed, or is at risk of harm, by a person not associated with the school or family. For example, a boyfriend or girlfriend or ex-partner of a student; disclosure of abuse/harm by their dentist or physiotherapist or a stranger. In these circumstances, the First Person must follow the framework for responding to and reporting student protection concerns of Identify, Confer, Report, Support. This includes

- identifying if a reasonable suspicion or significant harm has occurred and
- reporting as per this document, which may include a report to the Queensland Police Service, and/or the Department responsible for Child Safety.

The first priority is the safety of the student.

4.6 Responding to concerns that do not meet the threshold for reporting harm

- A First Person may identify concerns regarding a student that do not form a reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse, likely sexual abuse, or significant harm. However, the assessment or professional judgement of the First Person may indicate that without support or intervention, a student and/or their family is at risk of entering the child protection system.
- Concerns must be raised with the principal and School Student Protection Contacts, who may refer the student/and or their family to the appropriate service. This may include support options through the school, such as the School Guidance Counsellor, or to community-based options such as Family and Child Connect.
- A First Person may also identify concerns regarding a student that may not meet reporting thresholds because of the age of the student. A First Person must always report the concerns to the principal irrespective of the age of the student (or the Director of the Governing Body if the allegations involve the principal), so appropriate next steps can be determined.

- The Student Protection Guidelines Section 9 provide details of options available to support students and families.
- Concerns and decision making must be documented and retained by the principal and or School Student Protection Contacts.

4.7 Reporting by a student

If a student of Toowoomba Catholic Schools considers the conduct of a staff member of the school to be inappropriate, they may report to the principal, or the School Student Protection Contact identified by posters located at the school and on the school website, or any staff member they feel comfortable speaking with.

Any staff member who receives a report from a student that they consider the conduct of another staff member to be inappropriate, must follow the framework for responding to and reporting student protection concerns of Identify, Confer, Report, Support. This includes

- identifying if a reasonable suspicion or significant harm has occurred and
- reporting as per this document, which may include a report to the Queensland Police Services, and/or the Department responsible for Child Safety and
- informing the principal about the concerns (or the Director of the Governing Body if the principal is involved in the allegation).

4.8 Reporting to the Queensland College of Teachers

In accordance with Section 76 of the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005 (Qld), when the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Office deals with an allegation of harm caused, or likely to be caused, to a child because of the conduct of a teacher of the school, the school must provide a report to the Queensland College of Teachers as soon as practicable after starting to deal with the allegation.

The report must include

- the name of the employing authority and, if the name of the authority is different to the name of the prescribed school, the name of the prescribed school
- the name of the relevant teacher
- the day the employing authority started dealing with the allegation
- the allegation, particulars of the allegation and any other relevant information
- details about what actions the employing authority has taken to deal with the allegation.

A report must also be given as soon as practicable after Toowoomba Catholic Schools Office stops dealing with the allegation for any reason, in accordance with Section 77 of the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005 (Qld).

5. Writing an effective report of concern

It is vital to complete a comprehensive report of the concerns using the Online Student Protection Reporting Form. This will assist with an efficient and effective process - important to ensuring the safety and wellbeing of the student. This is the responsibility of the First Person.

However, the First Person is encouraged to seek assistance from the School Student Protection Contact and/or principal as outlined in this document.

Resources to assist you

- Key tips in completing the report can be found at Appendix 4

6. After the report is made

It is important to remember that there is a parallel process of safeguarding through reporting the concerns and providing support to the student.

Flowchart 8: Parallel process of safeguarding and supporting

Our responsibility does not end with the report. The report is one step in an ongoing process that focuses on ensuring the safety and wellbeing of our students.

Follow up action includes the following.

- The principal confirming receipt of the report and actions with Queensland Police Service and/or the Department responsible for Child Safety to confirm both receipt of the report, and any action that these agencies may take. Wherever possible ask for written confirmation.
- Implementing risk management processes to address safety concerns of the student, this includes between students where harm has occurred.
- Providing or organising pastoral support to address the wellbeing of students. Ensure appropriate follow up is provided with the student.
- Maintaining supportive relationships with parents/carers and families.
- Ensuring all parties involved respect the confidentiality and privacy of students and families involved.
- Where relevant, preparing for child protection interviews by assuring confidentiality, safety, and support. Seek advice from the principal, the School Student Protection Contacts or the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Student Protection Officer or Advisor to support the student and prepare for any interview.

7. Advising parents/carers

When a student protection report to the Queensland Police Service and/or the Department responsible for Child Safety is required, Toowoomba Catholic Schools personnel must consider when or if parents/carers are advised of the report.

It is recognised that in some situations, parents/carers should be advised immediately or just prior to the report being submitted, as the primary carers of the student. This acknowledges that we want to work with families/carers to support their children. However, in other circumstances it is recommended that parents/carers are advised after the report is made.

The following guidelines are recommended to support decision making.

- Confer with appropriate personnel as specified in this document which includes assessing the risks of when to advise the parents/carers.
- Conferral may also include seeking guidance from relevant authorities ie the Queensland Police Service and/or Department responsible for Child Safety
- Assessing risk of when to advise the parents/carers involves determining what is in the student's best interests. This includes determining whether there is a reasonable belief that
  - someone may be charged with a criminal offence for the harm and advising the parents/carers would jeopardise the investigation eg
    - the alleged person responsible for the harm/abuse is one of the student's parents/carers
    - the alleged person responsible for the harm/abuse may abscond with the student
    - risk that the parents/carers may confront a student allegedly responsible for harming their child.
- Advising the parents/carers may expose the student to harm. For example, the parents/carers may blame the student or threaten them which can cause greater harm, impede both the investigation and access to support.
- Advising the parents/carers may expose staff to harm.
- Where the suspected abuse or neglect is by a member of the student's family, the principal will only inform the parents/carers of the protection concern if appropriate and once guidance is sought from the Queensland Police Service or the Department responsible for Child Safety.

It is recommended that the principal seek immediate guidance from the Queensland Police Service and/or the Department responsible for Child Safety as to when it is appropriate to discuss the matter with the student's parents/carers.

The priority of all Toowoomba Catholic Schools personnel must remain on the safety and wellbeing of the student, and ensuring they have access to appropriate support including by parents/carers.

Appendix 1 - Definitions

Accountable person

In accordance with S229BB of the Criminal Code Act 1899, an 'Accountable Person' means an adult who is associated with an institution such as Toowoomba Catholic Schools, who becomes aware that there is a significant risk that another adult, that is, the 'alleged offender' will or has committed a child sexual offence to a child.

The Accountable Person is someone who has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove the risk.

An Accountable Person is responsible for safeguarding students from sexual offences and must act to reduce or remove the risk.

It is a criminal offence for an Accountable Person to fail to protect a child from a child sexual offence.

Child

A child is a person under 18 years of age.

Harm

As defined by Section 9 of the Child Protection Act 1999

- (1) Harm, to a child, is any detrimental effect of a significant nature on the child's physical, psychological, or emotional well-being.
- (2) It is immaterial how the harm is caused.
- (3) Harm can be caused by –
  - (a) Physical, psychological, or emotional abuse or neglect; or
  - (b) Sexual abuse or exploitation.
- (4) Harm can be caused by –
  - (a) A single act, omission, or circumstance; or
  - (b) A series or combination of acts, omissions, or circumstances.

See the Student Protection Guidelines for detailed definitions.

Child sexual offence (Criminal Code 1899 Chapter 22)

Child sexual offence means an offence of a sexual nature committed in relation to a child.

S229BC identifies child sexual offence as

- (a) ... a child sexual offence is being or has been committed against a child by another adult; and
- (b) At the relevant time, the child is or was:
  - i. Under 16 years; or
  - ii. A person with an impairment of the mind.

Sexual assault includes

Any person who –

- (a) Unlawfully and indecently assaults another person; or
- (b) Procures another person, without the person's consent –
  - i. To commit an act of gross indecency; or
  - ii. To witness an act of gross indecency by the person or any other person.
- (c) is guilty of a crime.

The Criminal Code specifies different levels of criminal action towards a child which includes indecent treatment of a child under 16, carnal knowledge with or of children under 16, procuring of a child for carnal knowledge or sexual acts, using internet etc., to procure children under 16, grooming a child under 16.

Child sexual abuse

As defined by Section 364 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006.

Sexual abuse, in relation to a relevant person, includes sexual behaviour involving the relevant person and another person in the following circumstances–

- (a) The other person bribes, coerces, exploits, threatens or is violent toward the relevant person;
- (b) The relevant person has less power than the other person;
- (c) There is a significant disparity between the relevant person and the other person in intellectual capacity or maturity.

Colleague

As defined by Section 13H of the Child Protection Act 1999, colleague, of a relevant person, means a person working in or for the same entity as the relevant person.

Director of the Governing Body

As defined by Section 364 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006.

director, of a non-State school's governing body, means a director of the governing body within the meaning of the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Act 2017, Section 9.

Failure to Report and Failure to Protect

See Appendix 2 for definitions under the Criminal Code 1899.

First Person (S366-366A Education (General Provisions) Act 2006)

The First Person is a staff member who becomes aware of or reasonably suspects that a student attending the school has been sexually abused by another person or is likely to be sexually abused by another person.

In addition, for the purposes of this document, the First Person is defined as any person who is part of the school community who becomes aware of or reasonably suspects that a student attending the school has experienced, or is at significant risk of experiencing-harm as a result of abuse, including alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student.

The First Person has responsibility for commencing the reporting processes once they become aware of or reasonably suspect abuse, harm or the risk of significant abuse, harm to a student and/or another child in the community. This responsibility cannot be delegated to someone else.

Alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student

Alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student includes but is not limited to any behaviour, including words, towards a student that is contrary to what is required of staff members under the Code of Conduct for Toowoomba Catholic Schools.

Further, any report from a person, including a student, about a staff member's behaviour towards a student that the person making the report considers to be inappropriate is to be taken as an allegation of inappropriate behaviour. This must be responded to in accordance with the processes contained within this document.

Reasonable suspicion

A reasonable suspicion is a suspicion that would be formed by a reasonable person based on a reasonable view of the evidence available to them. A reasonable suspicion is an objectively justifiable suspicion that is based on specific facts or circumstances.

Reportable suspicion

As defined by Section 13E of the Child Protection Act 1999, a reportable suspicion means a reasonable suspicion that a child has suffered, is suffering, or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse; and may not have a parent able and willing to protect the child from the harm.

Relevant person (Child Protection Act 1999)

A relevant person for the purposes of mandatory reporting under Section 13E of the Child Protection Act 1999, is any of the following—

- (a) a doctor
- (b) a registered nurse
- (c) a teacher
- (d) a police officer who, under a direction given by the commissioner of the police service under the Police Service Administration Act 1990, is responsible for reporting under this Section
- (e) a person engaged to perform a child advocate function under the Public Guardian Act 2014
- (f) an early childhood education and care professional.

Staff member

A staff member is any person who is employed by Toowoomba Catholic Schools on a casual, fixed term, or continuing basis, either pursuant to a contract of employment or appointed to a role at the school pursuant to an agreement with a Religious Order. This includes visiting teachers providing private tuition.

Student

A student is any person enrolled as such at a school or college under the control of Toowoomba Catholic Schools. This includes a 'relevant person' for the purposes of mandatory reporting under Sections 366 and 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006

- (a) a student under 18 years attending the school
- (b) a kindergarten age child registered in a kindergarten learning program at the school
- (c) a person with a disability who—
  - (i) under Section 420(2), is being provided with special education at the school; and
  - (ii) is not enrolled in the preparatory year at the school.

School Student Protection Contacts

A School Student Protection Contact (SSPC) is one of at least two persons who are nominated in each school in compliance with the Education (Accreditation of Non-State Schools) Regulation 2017, (Section 16(3)) to whom a student can report behaviour by a staff member that the student considers inappropriate.

Teacher

Means an approved teacher under the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005 employed at a school.

Volunteer

A volunteer is any person who provides assistance or support at a Queensland Catholic Education site on a voluntary basis. Student teachers are included in this definition.

Education (General Provisions) Act 2006
The Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 contains mandatory reporting requirements for all non-state school staff who become aware of or who reasonably suspect that a student has been sexually abused or is likely to be sexually abused by another person (Sections 366 and 366A). These requirements include sexual abuse, suspected sexual abuse and likely sexual abuse of students by another person. A staff member or Principal who fails to comply with the mandatory reporting requirements in relation to the sexual abuse or suspected sexual abuse of a student commits an offence under Section 366 of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 and is liable for a penalty of up to 20 penalty units.

However, a person does not commit an offence for failing to report the likely sexual abuse of a student under Section 366A of the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006.

Staff making a report in accordance with the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 will be protected from civil or criminal liability eg from defamation or breach of confidence. However, staff making a knowingly false, malicious, or vexatious report will not be protected by this immunity and may risk action for defamation, disciplinary action by their employer or disciplinary action by the Queensland College of Teachers.

Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2017

The Education (General Provisions) Regulation 2017 specifies particular information which is required in mandatory reports under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2017 (the Act).

Section 68 Report about sexual abuse—Act, ss 365 and 366

A report under Section 365(3) or 366(3) of the Act must include the following particulars—

- (a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person);
- (b) the student's name and sex;
- (c) details of the basis for the first person becoming aware, or reasonably suspecting, that the student has been sexually abused by another person;
- (d) details of the abuse or suspected abuse;
- (e) any of the following information of which the first person is aware—
  - (i) the student's age;
  - (ii) the identity of the person who has sexually abused, or is suspected to have sexually abused, the student;
  - (iii) the identity of anyone else who may have information about the abuse or suspected abuse.

Section 69 Report about suspicion of likely sexual abuse—Act, ss 365A and 366A A report under Section 365A(4) or 366A(5) of the Act must include the following particulars—

- (a) the name of the person giving the report (the first person);
- (b) the student's name and sex;
- (c) details of the basis for the first person reasonably suspecting that the student is likely to be sexually abused by another person;
- (d) any of the following information of which the first person is aware—
  - (i) the student's age;
  - (ii) the identity of the person who is suspected to be likely to sexually abuse the student;
  - (iii) the identity of anyone else who may have information about the suspected likelihood of abuse.

Criminal Code Act 1899

Section 229BC of Criminal Code Act 1899 establishes a general requirement that applies to all adults (18 years or over) in Queensland to report to the Queensland Police Service any information that causes the adult to believe on reasonable grounds, or ought reasonably to cause the adult to believe, that a child sexual offence is being or has been committed against a child by another adult.

At the time of the offending behaviour, the child victim must be under 16 years of age or a person with an impairment of the mind. A 'child sexual offence' means an offence of a sexual nature

[whether or not it meets the definition of sexual abuse under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006] committed in relation to a child, including for example, an offence against a provision of chapter 22 and 32 of the Criminal Code Act 1899.

Failure to protect child from sexual offence s229BB

(1) An accountable person commits a crime if—

(a) the person knows there is a significant risk that another adult (the "alleged offender" ) will commit a child sexual offence in relation to a child; and

(b) the alleged offender—

(i) is associated with an institution; or

(ii) is a regulated volunteer; and

(c) the child is under the care, supervision, or control of an institution; and

(d) the child is either—

(i) under 16 years; or

(ii) a person with an impairment of the mind; and

(e) the person has the power or responsibility to reduce or remove the risk; and

(f) the person wilfully or negligently fails to reduce or remove the risk.

Maximum penalty—5 years imprisonment

Failure to make a report s229BC

It is a criminal offence when any adult in Queensland, including students who are 18 years or older, fails to report to the Queensland Police Service a reasonable belief that a child sexual offence is being or has been committed against a child by another adult without a reasonable excuse. A reasonable excuse not to make a report includes that a report has already been made under:

- the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006 (reporting sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse)
- the Child Protection Act 1999 (reporting significant harm or risk of significant harm).

Maximum penalty—3 years' imprisonment

Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005

The Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005 requires an employing authority to notify the Queensland College of Teachers (QCT)

- about allegations of harm to a child because of the conduct of a teacher as soon as practicable, after commencing investigating the allegations (Section 76)
- about the outcome of allegations of harm because of the conduct of a teacher where the teacher has been dismissed or resigned within 14 days (Section 77)
- if the teacher has been dismissed in circumstances that call into question the teacher's competency as a teacher within 14 days (Section 78).

Evidence Act 1977

Section 93A provides the legislative authority for the Queensland Police Service and the Department responsible for Child Safety to conduct an interview and obtain a recorded statement from a child under 16 years, or a person who was 16 or 17 years when the statement was made and who, at the time of the proceeding, is a special witness, or an intellectually impaired person who has personal knowledge of the matters dealt with by the statement.

Appendix 3 - Reporting sexual abuse and likely sexual abuse under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006

Flowchart A

Important note

If there is reasonable suspicion that the student has been sexually abused or is likely to be sexually abused or has been the victim of child sexual offence perpetrated by an adult and may not have a parent able and willing to protect them, reporting to the Department responsible for Child Safety must occur. See Flowchart 3.

Reporting sexual abuse and likely sexual abuse where the First Person is the principal

Flowchart B

Reporting significant harm to Department responsible for Child Safety under the Child Protection Act 1999

Flowchart C

A First Person identifies a concern regarding a student.

The First Person may confer with an appropriate colleague, being the principal or School Student Protection Contact, and/or use resources such as the Child Protection Guide, in order to determine whether the concern forms a reasonable suspicion that the student has suffered, is suffering or is at unacceptable risk of suffering, significant harm and may not have a parent able and willing to protect the student from harm. The First Person must never confer with the person who allegedly is the source of the concern.

A reasonable suspicion is formed by the First Person.

The First Person immediately completes the report and submits the form to the principal or the Director of the Governing Body.

The principal or Director of the Governing Body immediately forwards the report to Queensland Police Service.

The principal or Director of the Governing Body, as a matter of urgency, advises the First Person, in writing, that the report has been submitted to Queensland Police Service.

A reasonable suspicion is NOT formed by the First Person.

The First Person refers the concerns to the principal.

The principal considers any support and/or referral as appropriate in the circumstances.

Important note

If there is a reasonable suspicion that the student has been sexually abused or is likely to be sexually abused by another person, then the processes as outlined in Flowchart A must also be followed, or Flowchart B if the First Person is the principal.

Mandatory responsibilities

If the First Person is a mandatory reporter under the Child Protection Act 1999 (teachers, nurses, early childhood professionals, registered child advocates), and the reasonable suspicion is that the student has suffered, is suffering, or is at an unacceptable risk of significant harm caused by physical or sexual abuse and may not have a parent able and willing to protect the student from the harm (a reportable suspicion under Section 13E of the Child Protection Act 1999), the mandatory reporter is responsible, as a matter of urgency, to ensure that the report has been submitted to the Department responsible for Child Safety, unless they become aware, or reasonably suppose, that the matter has already been brought to the attention of the authorities.

If the mandatory reporter forms a reportable suspicion and is not able to progress a report through the process detailed in the Flowchart C, they are able to meet their mandatory reporting obligation through reporting directly to Department responsible for Child Safety via the online reporting form: Make a Report to Child Safety.

Appendix 4 - Writing a comprehensive report of the concerns

Report categories	Tips
First Person	The name of person making the report.
Cause of concern	Refer to the Sections 3 and 4 of Student Protection Guidelines to determine the type of harm that you suspect.
Subject children	Refers to the student/s but may also include other siblings you are aware of who may have experienced harm or risk of harm. <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• name of student/s</li> <li>• age of student/s</li> <li>• sex descriptor of the student/s</li> <li>• how to contact student/s (address where they usually live and name and address of the school)</li> </ul>
School	Refers to the school the student attends.
Child risk factors	Be as explicit as you can about what the behaviours or risk are that have been identified (Refer to Section 4 of the Student Protection Guidelines).
Parents/Carers/Household members	Speak with your principal or the School Student Protection Contact for the school to obtain this information.
Awareness or suspicion of concerns	Detail how you are aware or how you formed your suspicion. Focus on the factual information you have and be specific. Avoid emotions and assumptions. What do you know?
Description of concerns	Detail the harm to which your suspicion or awareness relates. Focus on the factual information you have and be specific. Avoid emotions and assumptions. What do you know? Be specific.
What happened?	Keep this factual. Use headings to break this down so it is easy to read and makes sense to you and the reader. Explain the concerns you have identified and categorise if more than one, for example, physical harm, neglect, psychological harm. Identify if in your assessment if there is a parent willing or able? This assessment should be made in consultation with the principal (or the Director of the Governing Body if the principal is involved in the allegations).
When did it happen?	Be as explicit as you can about when things happened.
Where did it happen?	Provide details about where you believe or know the harm occurred, for example at the family home.
Has the concern (or similar) occurred previously?	Document if you, your principal or School Student Protection Contact are aware of any previous concerns.

	You can seek this information through conferral and working with the principal and/or School Student Protection Contact.
Injuries to child	Be as specific as possible eg 'Bruising noted all along the left side of the face, around the eye, cheek, and neck. Bruising including to the right forearm, approximately the size of an adult's hand. The bruising was purple and black in colour, with a hint of yellow.'
Immediate safety concerns	This asks you to identify immediate safety concerns and involves identifying if the student is currently at an unacceptable risk of harm. This again draws on your professional judgement and the information you have obtained. For example, 'Adrian hinted that his father caused his injuries to his face and neck. Adrian stated his mother had told him to say he fell when at the skate park. Adrian's father lives at the family home and will have full access to him. No medical attention was sought by Adrian's father or mother.'
Observations of the child	Describe the student's behaviour, how did they respond when you spoke with them? Have there been any patterns or concerns that you have noticed, for example, a decline in grades or the student becoming more withdrawn. Be specific.
Unborn child	Document if to your knowledge there is an unborn child in the home that you know of who may be at unacceptable risk of harm.
Alleged person responsible for the abuse/harm	From your observations or information, who is the alleged person causing the abuse/harm? Provide as many particulars as possible about their identity eg Adrian's father.
Persons with more information	Include the name of any adults who may have additional information. Do not ask parents/carers for information if they are, or you reasonably suspect they are the alleged source of abuse or neglect.
Actions taken by staff member	List what actions you or other staff members have taken in response to the concerns eg 'Consultation with School Guidance Counsellor Ms Smith on 20/6/23 to provide emotional support to Adrian. Consultation with Student Protection Contact Ms Habib and Principal Ms Ying on 20/6/23. Child Protection Concern completed on 20/6/23 and submitted at 4.30pm.'
Prior discussion with parents/carers	Document any discussions you may have had with the parents/carers about the concerns. Importantly do not ask the parents/carers for information if they are the alleged person responsible for the abuse or harm. If this is the case specify this in the Student protection reporting form.
Parents/carers risk factors	Record any parental/carer risk factors you are aware of. Your principal or School Student Protection Contact may have additional information or provide assistance. Be as specific as you can.

Appendix 5 - Frequently Asked Questions

Identifying harm or abuse

What is my responsibility once I have become aware of abuse, harm, or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour by a staff member towards a student?

Your responsibility is to take every concern seriously and gather sufficient information to help you identify if there is a reasonable suspicion of abuse, harm, or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour. From there, follow the framework set out in this document of Identify, Confer, Report and Support.

What is the difference between gathering information and investigating?

Gathering information is the process of seeking more information to determine if you have reasonable grounds to suspect abuse, harm, or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student (see definition at Appendix 1). You can do this by speaking to the student and conferring with the principal and/or the School Student Protection Contact at your school. You do not have to determine if the concerns are true or false.

Who has responsibility for investigating?

Investigation may be undertaken by the appropriate authorities, the Department responsible for Child Safety and the Queensland Police Service. Where appropriate, the principal or Director of the Governing Body may determine to investigate a matter. The principal, and/or the School Student Protection Contact can help guide you about the boundaries of responsibilities.

If in doubt, can I talk with the alleged person responsible for the abuse or harm just to confirm?

No, the safety and wellbeing of the student is your priority, this means ensuring your focus is on safeguarding them. Talking with the alleged person responsible can place the student at greater risk, and potentially obstruct the investigation by the relevant authorities.

Conferral regarding harm or abuse or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student

What happens if during the conferral process, there is disagreement between the First Person and the principal?

Seek another point of conferral, this should include the School Student Protection Contact, or the Student Protection Officer or Advisor at Toowoomba Catholic Schools.

Does conferral involve talking to the alleged person responsible for the abuse or harm?

No, the safety and wellbeing of the student is your priority, this means ensuring your focus is on safeguarding them. Talking with the alleged person responsible for the abuse or harm can place the student at greater risk, and potentially obstruct an investigation by the relevant authorities.

Does conferral involve talking with the student's parents/carers?

It is always advisable to confer with the principal, and/or School Student Protection Contact in the first instance to determine if there is a parent willing and able to safeguard the student.

When can I advise the parents/carers?

Parents/carers are an important support in student's lives, and we acknowledge the importance of working with and supporting them to support their children. However, an assessment must be made about the safety of the student. Therefore, confer with appropriate personnel to determine if and when to advise parents/carers.

Reporting harm or abuse

As a teacher what is my responsibility?

Teachers are mandatory reporters and have a duty to report any concerns of abuse/harm to a student as per the Student Protection Processes.

As a principal what is my responsibility?

In addition to being a mandatory reporter, principals have responsibility for ensuring the processes set out in this document are followed.

Principals are responsible for maintaining a culture of safety and have a duty to report any concerns of harm to a student as per these processes.

As a staff member what is my responsibility?

All staff members are responsible for safeguarding students, this includes identifying and responding to concerns about abuse, harm or alleged staff inappropriate behaviour and ensuring the processes in this document are followed, including reporting.

As a volunteer/other personnel what is my responsibility?

You are still responsible for following the process of identifying and conferral with the principal and/or School Student Protection Contact. The principal or School Student Protection Contact at your school will then facilitate reporting the concerns if necessary.

What happens if the online form is not available?

Where there are IT issues, you must still report without delay. This will involve either

- making a verbal report to the relevant authority as a matter of priority, and following up with a written report as soon as the IT issues are resolved, or
- completing the manual version of the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Student Protection reporting form and submitting to authorities. This form can be located on the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Intranet Student Protection page.

What happens when the principal is not available?

Do not delay. Remember the safety and wellbeing of the students is of paramount importance. Every school has a designated delegate, you must confer with this person and follow the reporting procedures.

What happens if I don't have time to make the report because I am teaching or busy?

Prioritising the safety and wellbeing of the student is the priority.

The First Person can seek support from the principal and or School Student Protection Contact to ensure they have the time to Confer, Report and Support.

The First Person should be provided with support that may include having someone else take over their teaching responsibility or other duties.

Remember it is of paramount importance to not delay.

What happens if it is an emergency?

Immediate safety concerns require immediate attention, do not delay, and Call 000 and speak with the relevant authority, for example the Queensland Police Service or the Department responsible for Child Safety.

In a medical emergency contact 000 and ask for an Ambulance.

What happens if I am worried about a student, it is Friday afternoon, and I cannot find an appropriate person to confer with?

If you cannot locate any appropriate member of staff as outlined in this document, you can contact the Department responsible for Child Safety or Child Safety After Hours Service, or Queensland Police Service and confer.

In the case of any sexual abuse or other related harm where there has been a possible criminal offence, for example domestic and family violence, immediately contact the Queensland Police Service and confer with them.

Supporting students*What is my responsibility in supporting a student?

The wellbeing of our students is our priority. This means making sure that we provide whatever emotional, physical, and medical support is necessary. Confer with the principal and/or School Student Protection Contact about the best way to do this.

Do I need to do anything else after I have reported the harm or abuse?

Yes, your responsibility does not end with the report. Remember we need to ensure the wellbeing of the student; this means considering whether they need to be linked with support services such as counselling or other specialised supports. Always confer with the principal and/or the School Student Protection Contact about the best way to do this.

Preface

These guidelines have been developed by the Queensland Catholic Education Commission (QCEC) in conjunction with Catholic School Authorities in order to provide information to support the implementation of the Student Protection Processes for Queensland Catholic Schools. These guidelines may be subject to change in line with child protection practice developments and may be subject to customisation to reflect the resources and systems in place for a particular Catholic School Authority.

1. Understanding abuse and harm

All students have the right to be safe in environments free from abuse and harm. Where this is not the case, adults have a responsibility to act. This section of the guideline explains the key concepts that underpin the processes for ensuring the safety of students, in order to inform the actions staff members must take if they form a reasonable suspicion of abuse, harm or staff inappropriate behaviour towards a student.

As a first step, it is important that staff members understand what is meant by the terms 'abuse' and 'harm'.

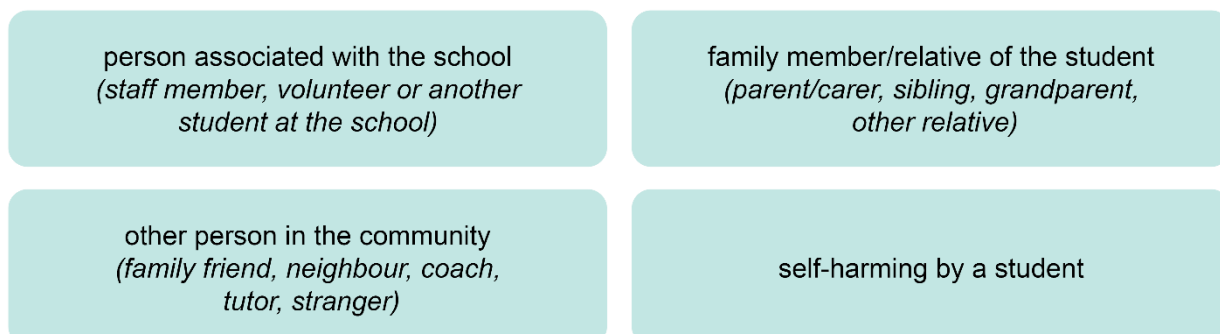

Generally, the types of abuse can be summarised as shown below. These types of abuse can cause the following types of harm to a student.

- physical harm
- psychological harm
- emotional harm

Sources of abuse and harm

Students can be abused, or experience harm from a number of sources. These include the following.

2. Types of abuse

2.1 Sexual abuse and likely sexual abuse

Sexual abuse of a student occurs when a person engages in sexual behaviour with a student, and

- the other person bribes, coerces, exploits, threatens or is violent toward the student and/or
- the student has less power than the other person and/or
- there is a significant disparity between the student and the other person in intellectual capacity or maturity.<sup>1</sup>

Characteristics of a power imbalance include: significant differences in age, developmental ability, authority, influence or some kind of control over the student.

Likely sexual abuse is where it is more probable than not that a student will be sexually abused in the future. One situation where a reasonable suspicion of likely sexual abuse could be formed is where 'grooming' behaviour towards a student is identified.

Important note

Sexual activity between staff members and students

The involvement of any staff member or volunteer within a school in sexual activity with, or sexual exploitation of, a student attending that school is always to be regarded as sexual abuse.

2.1.1 What does sexual abuse involve?

Sexual abuse involves an imbalance of power between a student and the other person. The imbalance of power allows force, trickery, emotional bribery, blackmail or emotional pressures to be used against the student to involve him/her in sexual activity or to sexually exploit him/her. Secrecy, the misuse of power and distortion of adult-child relationships may also be involved.

Sexual abuse involving physical contact with a student could include

- touching, kissing, holding or fondling a student's body in a sexual manner
- touching, kissing or fondling a student's genital area
- engaging in or attempting to engage in vaginal or anal intercourse with a student
- penetrating or attempting to penetrate a student's vagina or anus with a finger or other object
- engaging in or attempting to engage in oral sex with a student or
- engaging in or attempting to engage in masturbation with a student.

It does not matter whether the student is clothed or unclothed whilst sexual abuse involving physical contact takes place. Engagement of a student in sexual acts by duress or through inducements of any kind is considered sexual abuse.

Sexual abuse/likely sexual abuse of a student may not necessarily involve physical contact. It could, for example, involve behaviour that occurs in the student's direct presence or that occurs indirectly including through electronic communications. Examples include

- exposing a sexual body part to a student
- requesting a student to expose a sexual body part
- making obscene or sexually explicit remarks to a student
- sending obscene or sexually explicit material to a student
- blatant or persistent intrusion into a student's physical privacy
- voyeurism – covertly observing intimate behaviour that is normally private
- exposing a student to pornographic films, photographs, magazines or other material
- having a student pose or perform in a sexually explicit manner
- exposing a student to a sexual act
- forcing a student to witness a sexual act or
- communicating with a student in a sexually intrusive way.

2.1.2 What is grooming?

Sexual offending against a student is rarely a random act by a stranger. It is commonly based on a relationship with the student that has been formed over time. The abuse is commonly well thought out and planned in advance. Offenders may often take time to 'groom' their victim, often over a lengthy period. They will also often 'groom' the student's parents/carers or others who might otherwise protect them from the abuse. This occurs so that the student and his/her parents/carers will trust the offender and not suspect any intended wrongdoing.

The establishment of a relationship of trust which is then misused is often very confusing and damaging to the student, who may not even immediately recognise what is happening to them as abuse. Grooming behaviour is unlikely to be recognised when observed as a one-off event, but a pattern of grooming of the intended victim and/or the intended victim's parents/carers is likely to be recognised. Grooming will tend to develop in intensity over time. It will also tend to include elements of secrecy and concealment. It is important to be aware of the types of behaviours that can be used in the process of grooming a student, while remembering that some of the behaviours might equally reflect normal interactions based on genuine motives of care and concern. This is the reason that, for staff members, the observance of clear professional boundaries and transparency in the declaration of potential conflicts of interest is a vital part of the protection of students and of the professional integrity of staff members themselves.

Recognition of the grooming process used as a preparation for the sexual abuse of a student is an indicator of likely sexual abuse.

Some examples of ‘grooming’ behaviour could include the following.

2.2 Activity between peers

2.2.1 Sexual activity between students

It is important to note that activity between peers may also be considered abusive, especially if the relationship is coercive or the behaviour forceful, degrading or threatening. Sexual activity between young people under 16 years of age is not automatically considered to be sexual abuse, even though technically it is unlawful in Queensland. The dynamics and characteristics of the sexual activity is a key consideration. For example, if a young person under the age of 16 years engages in sexual activity with a peer and there is no imbalance of power, coercion or manipulation involved, this may not be considered sexual abuse. On the other hand, if there is a power imbalance, coercion or manipulation in the sexual activity between a young person 16 years and older and another person, this may be considered sexual abuse.

Important note

Sexual activity between students or peers where one party is 18 years or older and the other under the age of 16 years is a child sexual offence.

Under s229BC of the Criminal Code Act 1899, adults are required to report a child sexual offence to the Queensland Police Service unless it has been reported under the Education General Provisions Act or the Child Protection Act (see Student Protection Processes for Queensland Catholic School Authorities).

2.2.2 Student sexual behaviour

Suspensions that a student has been sexually abused may also be formed in some cases where a student exhibits concerning sexual behaviour. Resources such as those published by the Department responsible for Child Safety can assist in identifying age-inappropriate sexual behaviour, and Section 4.2 of this guideline details further signs of sexual abuse.

2.3 Physical abuse

Physical abuse refers to non-accidental use of physical force against a student by another person that results in significant harm to the student.

2.3.1 What does physical abuse involve?

Examples of physical abuse include but are not limited to hitting, shaking, throwing, burning, biting, poisoning and female genital mutilation. The definition of physically abusive behaviour extends to the fabrication, exaggeration and inducing of illness symptoms in a student.

A person does not have to intend to physically harm a student to have physically abused them (for example, physical punishment that results in bruising or fractures would generally be considered physical abuse). Physical abuse does not always leave visible marks or injuries. Physical abuse can result in significant physical harm (for example, fractures, burns or bruises) and/or emotional/psychological harm (for example, hypervigilance, depression or persistent state of fear and anxiety) to a student.

When considering if a student is at unacceptable risk of suffering harm caused by physical abuse by a person, a range of factors are considered. Examples include

- the person's propensity towards violence
- the degree of control a person has over their own behaviour or the behaviour of others
- the physical force used and
- the ability and willingness of another adult to act protectively to prevent the physical abuse.

Examples of situations which give rise to an unacceptable risk of physical abuse include, though are not limited to

- domestic violence involving the throwing of objects or
- situations in which a baby is shaken but not obviously injured.

2.4 Emotional/Psychological abuse

Emotional or psychological abuse is the persistent emotional ill-treatment of a student which causes severe and persistent adverse effects on a student's emotional development.

2.4.1 What does emotional or psychological abuse involve?

Examples of emotional abuse include but are not limited to constant criticism, public humiliation, belittling, constant yelling, withholding praise and affection, excessive teasing, scapegoating, rejection, hostility, exposure of a student to domestic and family violence and conveying that a student is worthless or unloved, inadequate or valued only insofar as the student meets the needs of another person.

Emotional or psychological abuse may feature age or developmentally inappropriate expectations being imposed on students. These may include interactions that are beyond the student's developmental capability, as well as overprotection and limitation of reasonable exploration and learning or preventing the student from participating in normal social interaction. Emotional abuse can result in significant harm to a student, for example, it can result in significant emotional/psychological harm such as depression, attachment disorders, chronic feeling of fear/anxiety or self-harm.

A student is considered to be at unacceptable risk of suffering harm caused by emotional abuse in a number of situations, for example the frequent, chronic and entrenched verbal criticisms and hostility directed at the student by another person.

2.5 Neglect

Neglect is the persistent failure to provide for a student's basic physical and emotional necessities of life such that the student's health and development are affected.

2.5.1 What does neglect involve?

Neglect is the persistent failure to provide for a student's basic physical and emotional necessities of life such that the student's health and development are affected. Basic needs include: food; housing; adequate clothing; personal hygiene and hygienic living conditions; health care, including the timely provision of medical treatment and dental care; and adequate supervision and protection needed for the student's optimal growth and development. Neglect may occur during pregnancy as a result of maternal substance abuse.

Neglect can result in a significant impact on a student's physical, emotional and psychological wellbeing. It can result in significant physical harm such as serious injury or death. For example, failure to supervise a student may result in a student ingesting poison or getting seriously injured or getting burnt. Neglect can also result in serious emotional/psychological harm such as attachment disorders, failure to thrive in infants and significant developmental delays.

A student is considered to be at unacceptable risk of neglect in situations such as severe or chronic substance misuse, significant mental illness, lack of parenting skills and addiction to gambling by the child's primary parents/carers inhibiting their capacity to provide sufficient care.

More information around understanding child abuse and harm can be found on the Department responsible for Child Safety website.

3. Significant harm

Harm can be caused by physical, psychological or emotional abuse, sexual abuse or neglect. Harm refers to the detrimental effect or impact of abuse/neglect on a student. For statutory intervention to occur, there must be information to suggest

- that the child has suffered, is suffering or is at any unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm and
- there may not be a parent able and willing to protect the child from harm.

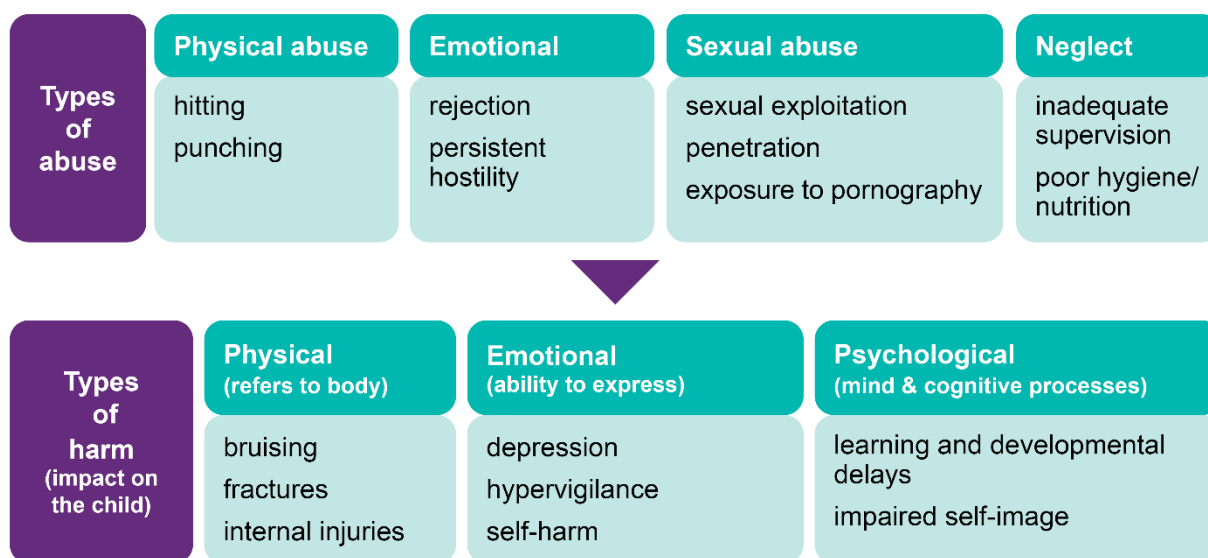

Harm can be caused by a single act, omission or circumstance or a series or combination of acts, omissions, or circumstances. This series or combination of acts, omissions or circumstances is often referred to as 'cumulative harm'.

3.1 What is 'unacceptable risk' of harm?

A student is considered to be at unacceptable risk of suffering harm if there are grounds to suspect that unless someone intervenes to prevent it, the actions of a person will result in, or are likely to result in, a detrimental effect of a significant nature on the student's physical, emotional and/or psychological wellbeing.

3.2 Relationship between abuse and harm

In essence, abuse is the action towards a student and harm is the impact of that action on the student. Students can experience multiple types of abuse, which in turn can cause multiple types of harm.

4. Recognising abuse and harm

4.1 Recognising the signs of abuse and harm

There are many signs that might lead staff members to have concerns about a student. It is important to keep an open mind when encountering these signs, as their presence does not necessarily mean that the student is experiencing harm caused by abuse and/or neglect. However, they may identify concerns for a student and indicate that further consideration and monitoring is the appropriate response.

It is important to remember

- the signs are generally more significant if they are severe, form a pattern, and/or show frequency
- the younger the student involved, the greater the risk
- all factors need to be considered including the student's circumstances and family context.

4.2 Identifying the signs of abuse and harm

4.2.1 Observations of student behaviour

In general terms, something may be wrong if you observe student behaviour such as

- nervousness/withdrawal
- passivity/excessive compliance
- evidence of deterioration in peer relationships and/or generally poor peer relationships
- trouble concentrating at school/unexpected drop in school academic performance
- frequent absences from school without substantiated or acceptable explanations
- being extremely aggressive, stealing or running away
- evidence of extreme or continually aroused emotional states
- out of character behaviour
- behaviour that is not age appropriate or typical of peer behaviour
- in younger students: separation anxiety, changed eating patterns
- in older students: drug/alcohol use, sexual promiscuity, self-harm or reckless and risk-taking behaviour.

In relation to possible harm or risk of harm to a student that may be a result of sexual, physical or emotional abuse and/or neglect you may observe the following.

4.2.2 Physical

- bruises or lacerations, especially on face, head and neck
- burns/scalds
- multiple injuries or bruises, especially over time
- fractures, dislocations, twisting injuries
- explanations offered by the student not consistent with the injury or the injury is unable to be explained by the student
- a student hiding injuries
- repeated injuries with a recurring or similar explanation

4.2.3 Neglect

- delay in achieving developmental milestones
- medical or therapeutic needs not attended to
- poor personal hygiene leading to social isolation
- scavenging for/stealing food; lack of adequate school lunches
- extreme seeking of adult affection
- flat and superficial way of relating

4.2.4 Domestic violence

- difficulties in eating and sleeping
- hypervigilance
- regression to age-inappropriate behaviours
- developmental delays
- student is over-protective of a parent/carer
- excessively controlling or aggressive/violent behaviour
- abuse of siblings/parent/carer

4.2.5 Emotional/psychological

- inability to value self and others
- lack of trust in people
- statements from the student eg I'm bad. I was born bad.
- extreme attention seeking behaviours

4.2.6 Sexual

- direct or indirect disclosures of abuse
- concerning sexual behaviour and/or age-inappropriate sexual knowledge
- use of threats, coercion or bribery to force other students into sexual acts
- sexual themes/fears expressed in artwork, written work or play
- repeated urinary tract infections, especially in younger girls
- physical trauma to buttocks, breasts, genitals, lower abdomen, thighs
- unexplained accumulation of money/gifts
- presence of sexually-transmitted infections, especially in younger students

More information around recognising the signs of abuse can be found on the Department responsible for Child Safety website.

5. Forming a reasonable suspicion

A reasonable suspicion of abuse or harm is a suspicion that would be formed by a reasonable person based on a reasonable view of the evidence available to them. In other words, a reasonable suspicion is an objectively justifiable suspicion that is based on specific facts or circumstances. When a reasonable suspicion is formed, a staff member must act in accordance with the Student Protection Processes.

Generally, the ways in which a staff member may form a reasonable suspicion are as follows.

- A student makes a direct disclosure about another person's behaviour (see Section 5.1 of this document).
- A parent/carer or any person reports information of concern about a student and/or another person's behaviour (this information may come from another student, relative, friend, acquaintance of the student or sometimes could be anonymous).
- Direct observation of abusive or inappropriate behaviour towards a student.
- Relevant observations (appearance, behaviours and situations) are witnessed, or other relevant firsthand knowledge is gained.

Additionally, Section 13C of the Child Protection Act 1999 offers some guidance around forming a reasonable suspicion that a student has suffered, is suffering or is at unacceptable risk of suffering significant harm.

- Whether there are detrimental effects on a student's body or psychological/emotional state, or this is likely to become so in the future.
- The nature and severity of the detrimental effects and the likelihood that they will continue.
- The age of the student.

A staff member may confer with an appropriate colleague, such as a School Student Protection Contact, the Student Protection Officer or Advisor at the Toowoomba Catholic Schools Office, or the principal as part of the decision-making process as to whether they have formed a reasonable suspicion – further detail around conferral processes can be found in the Student Protection Processes. The staff member must never confer with the person who is or potentially is the source of the concern.

It should be noted that at times information may come to a staff member's attention indirectly (eg perhaps third hand). In these cases, the following should be considered.

- It is not the role of the staff member or of the school to investigate, confirm or substantiate the validity of the information.
- In some cases, it may be appropriate to seek additional information to clarify the situation, to the extent necessary to determine any action that may be required under the Student Protection Processes.
- If the information received gives rise to a staff member forming a reasonable suspicion of harm to a student resulting from abuse or neglect, from any source, the staff member must follow the relevant reporting requirements described in the Student Protection Processes.
- If the information received by the staff member suggests inappropriate behaviour by a staff member towards a student, then the staff member must follow the relevant reporting requirements described in the Student Protection Processes.

Please note: Staff members must not photograph student's injuries or audio/video record the discussion with the student – this is the role of the Queensland Police Service.

Details about how the information came to the staff member's attention should be included in any report made under the Student Protection Processes.

5.1 Responding to a disclosure

Staff members in schools are often the first people a student may tell when they are feeling unsafe, therefore it is important for staff members to be aware of how students disclose and how to respond in the most appropriate manner. If a student tells a staff member about being abused or harmed apply the information provided in the diagram over the page.

Listen

Move to a suitable environment, free of distractions.
Be calm and patient – allow for the child to be heard.
Let the child use their own words – avoid asking leading questions.
Avoid ‘quizzing’ the child about details of the abuse.
Don’t be afraid of saying the ‘wrong’ thing. Listening supportively is more important than what you say.

Reassure

Reassure the child that it is okay to tell you what’s been happening.
Address any concerns about the child’s safety.
Reassure the child s/he is not at fault and is not the cause of any distress you may feel.

Respect

Respect that the child may only reveal some details.
Acknowledge the child’s bravery and strength.
Avoid making promises you can’t keep – manage the child’s expectations.
Explain to the child that in order for them to be safe you will need to report their experience to someone else.

Adapted from an AIFS infographic: Responding to children and young people’s disclosure of abuse

Remember – it is not a school staff member’s role to investigate a suspicion of an unacceptable risk of abuse/harm from any source, rather they are to report a reasonable suspicion of abuse or harm in accordance with the Student Protection Processes. It is the role of officers of the Queensland Police Service and qualified officers of the Department responsible for Child Safety to investigate and collect evidence in the required circumstances, such as conducting interviews with students.

Only ask enough questions to help you decide whether you have honest and reasonable grounds to form a suspicion of harm/abuse or an unacceptable risk of harm/abuse. Be aware that any questioning beyond this could cause distress and confuse and could interfere with the integrity of any subsequent investigation undertaken by relevant authorities.

As soon as possible after the disclosure, make detailed relevant notes about any signs, disclosures, injuries, and behaviours that caused you to be concerned for the student’s safety or wellbeing.

Any response must be focussed on the best interests of the student. As such, the immediate support needs of a student are the priority and staff members must act promptly to raise the concerns with the principal.

6. Considering whether there is a parent able and willing to protect a student

Where there is no parent able and willing to protect a child from significant harm, then the Department responsible for Child Safety intervenes to ensure the safety of the student. This is therefore an important consideration when determining if a matter should be reported to the Department responsible for Child Safety.

A parent must be able AND willing to protect the child from significant harm.

Unable

In some cases, a parent may be willing to protect their child from significant harm, but they may not be able to do so, for example, the parent may be suffering from a severe mental health condition, physical illness or injury; or where existing court orders preclude the parent from taking protective action.

Unwilling

A parent may be able but not willing to protect their child, for example, where the parent continues in a relationship with a person who is sexually abusing their child and does not cease contact with the abusive person.

Unable

Unwilling

In some circumstances, a parent may be both unable AND unwilling to protect their child from significant harm. An example of this is a parent who has significant substance misuse issues and continues a relationship with someone who sexually abuses or is violent to their child.

In some cases, parents/carers will seek to minimise or reduce the significance of harm suffered by a student (or that the student is at risk of suffering) and this may indicate the parents/carers may not be able and willing to protect the child from harm. For example, this includes a parent/carer minimising serious self-harming behaviours exhibited by their child or failing to recognise the serious and/or long-term impacts of a child's medical needs or significant developmental delays.

Forming a reasonable suspicion around whether a parent may be able and willing is based on a number of factors, including

- the observations and knowledge the principal and staff members may have of the family circumstances
- disclosures made by a student and/or
- information provided by another person.

A staff member is not expected to conduct an investigation to ascertain if a parent is able and willing to act protectively, rather they must act on the information available to them. Staff members may confer with colleagues to assist in their decision making.

Please note: If a reasonable suspicion of sexual abuse or likely sexual abuse is formed, a report to the Queensland Police Service is to be made even if there is a parent able and willing to protect the child from harm.

7. Responsibilities under the Criminal Code Act 1899

Under Section 229BC of the Criminal Code Act 1899, an adult who gains information that causes the adult to believe on reasonable grounds, or ought reasonably to cause the adult to believe, that a child sexual offence is being or has been committed against a child by another adult and at the relevant time the child is or was under 16 years or a person with an impairment of the mind, they must report the matter to the Queensland Police Service.

Non-abusive sexual relationships in the following circumstances may fall outside of the mandatory responsibilities of teachers to report sexual abuse under the Child Protection Act 1999 and staff members to report sexual abuse under the Education (General Provisions) Act 2006, but must be reported under the Criminal Code.

- Student (18 years or older) commits a child sexual offence against a student under the age of 16 years that does not meet the threshold of 'sexual abuse'.
- Peer (18 years or older) commits a child sexual offence against a student under the age of 16 years that does not meet the threshold of 'sexual abuse'.
- Student (18 years or older) commits a child sexual offence against a peer# under the age of 16 years that does not meet the threshold of 'sexual abuse'.
- An allegation against any adult who commits a child sexual offence (where the information is obtained outside the course of employment).

Matters which may be encountered include

- carnal knowledge with or of children under the age of 16
- distributing intimate images or prohibited visual recordings
- maintaining a sexual relationship with a child.

Without a reasonable excuse (see Legislative References at Section 4 of the Student Protection Processes), an adult who fails to disclose the information to a police officer as soon as reasonably practicable after the belief is, or ought reasonably to have been formed, commits a misdemeanour with a maximum penalty of three years imprisonment.

An adult who, in good faith, discloses information about a child sexual offence to a police officer is not liable civilly, criminally or under an administrative process for making the disclosure.

# Footnote: In this context, 'peer' means a young person of a similar age who is not a student of the school.

8. Confidentiality, record keeping and information sharing

It is essential that Student Protection Processes are managed in a confidential manner that both preserves the dignity and privacy of all affected parties and ensures that any investigative process is not impaired.

The management of any student protection concern should be well-documented, with clear records of any disclosures made by a student and any actions taken by the school. All information relating to a student protection concerns, including notes, reports and other documents must be stored securely and confidentially.

8.1 Will a student's family know I have made a report?

A person who notifies the Department responsible for Child Safety about a suspicion that a student has been or is likely to be harmed (known as the 'notifier') cannot be identified unless certain exceptions apply. Where a student protection report results in a criminal court proceeding, the report may form part of the prosecution's evidence, therefore the staff member who made the report may be required to give evidence. Consequently, student protection reports must be completed in an impartial, accurate and factual manner.

8.2 Information sharing

Within the school, information should not be shared about student protection matters with other staff members unless for a specific purpose under the Student Protection Processes, for example conferring with the principal to determine whether a matter constitutes a reasonable suspicion of abuse or harm. Information may also be provided to staff members as part of ongoing support or risk management processes for a student.

There are a number of circumstances where a principal may be asked to share information, or be required to do so in order to support a student and their family.

- Under Part 4 of the Child Protection Act 1999, the Department responsible for Child Safety may request information around a student who may be in need of protection. Such requests should be in writing, and clearly specify what information is requested. The principal should keep clear records around what information was provided in response and ensure that any information is accurate and factual.
- A principal, as a 'particular prescribed entity' under the Child Protection Act 1999 may share information with certain service providers in order to obtain support for a student and their family. As best practice, any referral for support should be with the knowledge and consent of a student's parents/carers, however a principal may refer to service providers such as Family and Child Connect or Intensive Family Support Services without the prior consent of a parent/carer. These services will then seek the consent of the parent/carer to engage them in providing support.
- Police may seek information from a principal in relation to a law enforcement activity, for example in the investigation of a criminal offence, or in attempting to locate a missing student. Again, the principal should keep clear records about the information provided in response and ensure that any information is accurate and factual.

9. Support and referral services

When students and families receive support services early, it can avoid the escalation of concerns towards statutory intervention by the Department responsible for Child Safety or the Queensland Police Service. Where a concern is identified that does not meet the threshold for a report to the Department responsible for Child Safety or Queensland Police Service, or indeed where the outcome of a report is that no intervention by the authorities will occur, the principal should consider any referral to appropriate support services.

9.1 Family and Child Connect

Community-based intake and referral services, known as 'Family and Child Connect' have been established across Queensland to provide an additional pathway for referring concerns about students and their families. Family and Child Connect provides information and advice to people seeking assistance for students and families where there are concerns about their wellbeing and can connect families to local services. Families can also contact Family and Child Connect themselves for advice and help.

9.2 Intensive family support services

In addition to Family and Child Connect, Intensive family support services are funded services that provide family support delivered under a lead case management model to address multiple and/or complex needs and assist families to build their capacity to care for and protect their children.

Intensive family support services include

- Intensive Family Support
- Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Family Support Services and
- Fostering Families.

Information about making a referral to these services can be found via the Department responsible for Child Safety website Early support for all parents and families. Particular information around information sharing provisions for principals are detailed in Section 9 of this guideline.

9.3 Other referral options

In some cases, it may be desirable to refer a family to a specific local service in the community, particularly where the family's needs are clearly identified. For example, a family may be in need of financial or housing support. The Queensland Family and Child Commission's website provides useful information about local services.

9.4 School based supports

There are a number of options to support students at risk within the school environment that can be implemented in addition to any external referral, including

- referral to the School Guidance Counsellor
- engaging specific educational services to meet a student's needs
- consideration of academic demands and providing flexible alternatives
- identifying other school support staff, including pastoral care options and peer support
- implementing risk management plans, particularly involving situations between students
- providing protective behaviours education to students, including safety planning.

10. Understanding behaviour by a staff member a student considers to be inappropriate

For the purposes of the Student Protection Processes, staff inappropriate behaviour includes (though is not limited to) any behaviour, including words, towards a student that is contrary to what is required of staff members under the Code of Conduct for Toowoomba Catholic Schools.

Inappropriate behaviour by a staff member towards a student can be described in terms of violations of professional boundaries. These boundaries can be described as follows

Physical Boundaries

Exist to protect the body. Physical boundaries define appropriate physical contact between staff members and students in appropriate circumstances whilst respecting and responding to the physical needs of students.

Emotional Boundaries

Exist to protect feelings. Emotional boundaries determine the nature of appropriate professional relationships between staff members and students in the context of respecting the emotional needs and wellbeing of students.

Behavioural Boundaries

Exist to protect actions. Behavioural boundaries determine the appropriate behaviours expected of a staff member towards students, including respecting the rules of the Catholic School Authority or School.

The Catholic Church has established a *National Response Protocol* to provide a framework for Church entities to offer a consistent response to children and adults who have been subjected to child abuse by Church personnel. Church personnel include clerics and religious, employees and volunteers currently or previously associated with a Church Authority or entity.

Queensland specific mandatory reporting requirements, as set out in the Student Protection Processes for Queensland Catholic School Authorities, will apply to Catholic School Authorities prior to the National Response Protocol.

If an individual seeks information concerning the National Response Protocol, a referral should be made to the Queensland Catholic Church Professional Standards Office.

11. Historical allegations

When a staff member receives information that a former student has been sexually abused, or has suffered significant harm, by a staff member at the school, the staff member must follow the processes detailed in the Student Protection Processes.

If the allegation is against a current staff member or principal, then the processes detailed in Section 4.5 of the Student Protection Processes apply.

Where the person against whom the allegation is made is no longer an employee of Toowoomba Catholic Schools, the matter should be referred to the Queensland Police Service.

In relation to historical complaints of harm other than sexual or physical abuse matters, where the person against whom the allegation has been made is still employed by Toowoomba Catholic Schools, the matter should be addressed by Toowoomba Catholic Schools.

Where the person is no longer an employee of Toowoomba Catholic Schools, the matter may be referred to the Queensland Police Service, if the allegation constitutes a criminal offence.

Where the staff member is a cleric or member of a Religious Institute or a member of a Society of Apostolic Life or was a cleric or member of a Religious Institute or a member of a Society of Apostolic Life at the time of the alleged behaviour, the Bishop of the Catholic Diocese of Toowoomba will be informed immediately.

Where a historical allegation of sexual abuse, suspected sexual abuse, likely sexual abuse or significant harm towards a student is made against an employee of Toowoomba Catholic Schools, and the date of the allegation was during the period in which the Governing Body was not The Corporation of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Toowoomba, then in addition to meeting all reporting requirements as detailed in the Student Protection Processes for Toowoomba Catholic Schools, the Executive Director: Catholic Schools will notify in writing the appropriate contact within the Governing Body at the time that the allegation has been made, and this notification will occur without unreasonable delay.

Where a historical allegation of abuse or harm is made against a person who is or was a registered teacher in Queensland, the Queensland College of Teachers must be notified in accordance with the requirements of Sections 76 and 77 of the Education (Queensland College of Teachers) Act 2005.
